++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Wet and windy into Tuesday, brightening briefly before returning later.

This Evening and Tonight:

Remaining showers should die away, soon replaced from the southwest by a swathe of heavy rain moving eastwards on strengthening winds, perhaps with coastal gales later in the night. Milder than last night, but tempered by the wind. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:

Early rain clearing east, with some limited sunny intervals perhaps following briefly, before cloud and rain return later on strong winds. Windy early and late, especially near coasts. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:

Becoming drier, warmer and brighter on the whole in this period, especially in the east, with winds also less strong. Wednesday probably brightest. Early fog patches possible Thursday and Friday.
